You know us at Christmas

We are here for South West Scotland the rest of the year too.

Freddie's Story

One story stays with us. A wee boy we call Freddie, whose parents had nothing to give him that year. When our volunteers heard he loved dinosaurs and monster trucks, they hunted everywhere until his Red Bag Full of Joy was packed full of them.

His dad had been at his lowest. He told us afterwards that seeing what NBCC had done for his son gave him a reason to keep going.

That is the difference an ordinary gift can make. Most people know us for that Christmas moment. Fewer know what we do for the other eleven months.

Here all year

When a family or a vulnerable adult hits one of the toughest moments of their life, NBCC steps in. Not just in December, but whenever the need comes.

Support after a house fire.

Helping a family start again when they have lost everything.

Clothing and school supplies

For children whose families cannot stretch to them.

A hand at rock bottom

Support for people at their lowest, when it matters most.

Why Your Donation Matters

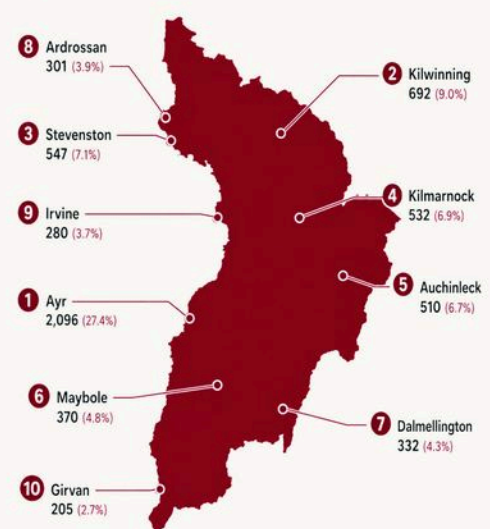

HERE ALL YEAR

The Night Before Christmas Campaign is a volunteer run charity in Annbank, Ayrshire, supporting children, young people and vulnerable adults across South West Scotland.

Your donation helps NBCC provide thoughtful gifts, essential support and moments of comfort, dignity and joy for people who may otherwise go without at Christmas. Donations also help cover the essential costs of running the charity, so we can keep reaching those who need us year after year.

Every pound helps remind someone that they have not been forgotten.
